

OPERA CONCERT - April 22nd

St. Clare of Montefalco Catholic Church will host a TUESDAY MUSICALE OF DETROIT Community Outreach Concert for Grosse Pointers and their friends and families on Saturday evening, April 22, 2017 at 7:30 p.m. It will be a Musical Feast of beloved Opera selections by Puccini, Verdi and Rossini, supplemented by soul-filled spirituals and instrumental music for four hand piano (Mozart's Sonata in D Major), a trumpet and organ work by Handel, performed by Church Organist David Troiano and trumpeter, Paul Roache. We'll also hear dazzling saxophone arrangements of well-loved works played by Christopher Sacco. Outstanding artists from the Universities of Cincinnati and Louisville, who have sung in major opera theatres in the United States and Europe will be performing. The performance is free to the public. Donations toward the renovation of the Petrof piano in the sanctuary of the Church will be accepted and gratefully received.

GOD AND SCIENCE - April 27th

FORMED: From Nothing to Cosmos

Fr. Robert Spitzer, S.J., PhD., dispenses with the contemporary statement, "Science has proven God does not exist," and then goes on to demonstrate God's existence from science, philosophy, medicine, the transcendentals, and metaphysical proofs. Fr. Spitzer is at once, entertaining and overflowing with pertinent information.
