Ken Kal

Radio play-by-play voice of the Detroit Red Wings, Ken Kal is in his 22nd season. Prior to joining the Wings, Ken handled the play-by-play duties for University of Michigan men's hockey program for 11 years on WTKA and WAAM. During this time, he also covered the Red Wings as a reporter.

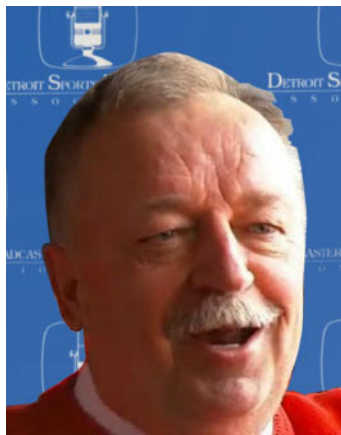

Born and raised in the City of Detroit, Kal began his radio career immediately following graduation from Wayne State University in 1979 with his first job at WAAM, handling sports and working as an on-air personality.

In addition to his broadcast duties, Kal represents the Red Wings in the community by visiting schools and business groups, and hosting team events.

Al Sobotka

Detroit Red Wing legend, Al Sobotka, goes by many names – Zamboni driver, octopus twirler, godfather, chef nonpareil, custodian of Hockeytown and many other unofficial positions. However, his primary responsibility is building operations manager for Joe Louis Arena.

Al has worked for the Red Wings for 46 years starting at Olympia Stadium. For the last 30 years, he has been driving the Zamboni between periods at Joe Louis Arena. Al is also famous for being the individual that handles any octopuses thrown on the ice during a game, a tradition that began with the Red Wings in 1952.
